

June 3, 2010

Dear Colleague,

On behalf of the Center on Juvenile and Criminal Justice and the California Correctional Peace Officers Association we cordially invite you to join us in a series of roundtable discussions on solutions for California's correctional crisis.

We are gathering a small group of the state's leading experts and stakeholders from all spectrums of the criminal justice system to develop a set of policy recommendations for the gubernatorial candidates that will elevate the political discourse and provide sensible solutions to corrections issues that are in the interests of all Californians. You have been asked to join us because of your unique experiences and breadth of knowledge including the topics of sentencing, re-entry, parole reform, risk assessment and/or juvenile justice.

Our goal at the end of our series of meetings (we anticipate 4-5 meetings over the coming months) will be to have a number of policy reports based on the consensus of the group, which outline sensible solutions to corrections issues that are in the interests of all Californians.

Please join us on June 30, 2010 at the Embassy Suites Hotel, 100 Capital Mall, Sacramento, CA.

We will have a meet-and-greet at 9:30 a.m. with the meeting from 10 a.m.–2 p.m. Refreshments and lunch will be provided and valet parking will be provided as availability permits.

We look forward to working with you to meet the challenges facing the California correctional system. Please RSVP to Terri Barbuto at (916) 440-8900 or terri.ccpoa@mac.com.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Dan Macallair".

Dan Macallair
Executive Director
CJCJ

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Stephen B. Walker".

Stephen B. Walker
Director of Legislative Affairs
CCPOA