Acknowledgments

The project is funded in part by a grant from The California Wellness Foundation (TCWF). Created in 1992 as an independent, private foundation, TCWF's mission is to improve the health of the people of California by making grants for health promotion, wellness education and disease prevention programs.

CJCJ also thanks the Haigh Scatena Foundation and Van Loben Sels Foundation for their generous support.

PREFACE

This guide is designed to assist juvenile court advocates in locating and accessing residential placement alternatives for youths in the juvenile justice system. The information contained in this guide is the result of over 15 years of effort by CJCJ staff and consultants in identifying incarceration alternatives for California youth. The programs listed are recognized for their ability to address the special needs of youths with long histories of juvenile justice system involvement. Through this guide it is hoped that fewer youths will be consigned to correctional institution placement.

The Center on Juvenile and Criminal Justice (CJCJ) is a private non-profit organization whose mission is to reduce society's reliance on the use of incarceration as a solution to social problems.

RATE CLASSIFICATION AND REIMBURSEMENT

Every state establishes rates for group and foster home providers. These rates are based on the range of services and necessary staffing levels. California has 14 rate classification levels (RCL) with the highest levels offering the most intense services. A level 14, for example, is primarily reserved for youths with severe mental health and behavioral issues who require psychiatric treatment. A level one is a foster placement in a family home with no supportive service.

Cost for placement in private licensed facilities in California are shared. Under the present system, in most instances, the Federal government assumes 50% of the costs, counties assume 30% of the cost, and the state assumes 20% of the cost.

The following is an overview of the cost reimbursement for each level.

Group Home Standardized Schedule of Rates

MYTHS AND FACTS ABOUT THE GROUP HOME PLACEMENT PROCESS

MYTH: THE PROGRAM MUST HAVE A CONTRACT WITH THE PARTICULAR COUNTY BEFORE A CHILD CAN BE PLACED.

FACT: IN CALIFORNIA ANY PROBATION DEPARTMENT CAN PLACE A YOUTH IN A PRIVATE FACILITY IN THE STATE PROVIDED THAT FACILITY IS LICENSED BY COMMUNITY CARE LICENSING, IS A NONPROFIT, AND HAS A RATE CLASSIFICATION LEVEL.

MYTH: THE PROBATION DEPARTMENT IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR MONITORING THE QUALITY OF SERVICES OR WHETHER THE PROGRAM MEETS LICENSING REQUIREMENTS.

FACT: IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PROBATION DEPARTMENT AS THE PLACEMENT AGENCY TO MONITOR THE PROGRAM AND ENSURE THAT IT MEETS STATE STANDARDS.

MYTH: OUT-OF-STATE PROGRAMS ARE NOT SUBJECT TO CALIFORNIA STANDARDS.

FACT: ALTHOUGH STANDARDS FOR GROUP HOME PRACTICE ARE ESTABLISHED BY INDIVIDUAL STATES, OUT-OF-STATE PLACEMENTS ARE REQUIRED TO MEET CALIFORNIA STANDARDS IF SERVING CALIFORNIA YOUTHS.

MYTH: YOU CAN PLACE YOUTHS IN PRIVATE LOCKED FACILITIES.

FACT: PLACEMENT OF YOUTHS IN PRIVATE LOCKED FACILITIES IS BANNED UNDER CALIFORNIA LAW. THE ONLY LOCKED PLACEMENT OPTIONS ARE JUVENILE HALL AND THE CALIFORNIA YOUTH AUTHORITY - ALTHOUGH SOME COUNTY CAMPS ARE LOCKED. THERE ARE ALSO SOME SPECIAL EDUCATION PROVISIONS THAT ALLOW SERIOUSLY EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED YOUTHS TO BE PLACED IN A LOCKED PSYCHIATRIC FACILITY IF IT IS DEEMED NECESSARY TO MEET THEIR EDUCATION NEEDS.

MYTH: JUDGES DETERMINE WHERE A YOUTH WILL BE PLACED.

FACT: JUDGES CAN ONLY COMMIT YOUTHS TO OUT-OF-HOME PLACEMENT. IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PROBATION DEPARTMENT TO DETERMINE WHERE THE YOUTH IS PLACED.

PLACEMENT REFERRAL PROCESS

STEP ONE

RESEARCH AND IDENTIFY PROSPECTIVE PLACEMENTS

Make a list of 10 possible programs that appear to meet the needs of your client and that potentially address the concerns of the court.

STEP TWO

CONTACT THE PROGRAM BY PHONE AND SPEAK TO THE INTAKE DIRECTOR

An initial phone call is crucial to determine if the program is interested in a possible referral. Be honest about your clients problems and strengths. Do not try to minimize your client's culpability or degree of need. Most programs are suspicious or weary of nonpublic agency personnel calling to make referrals. Be prepared to answer questions about why your client would benefit from the program.

STEP THREE

SEND A PLACEMENT PACKET TO THE PERSON YOU CONTACTED OR TO THE PLACEMENT DIRECTOR

A placement packet contains all the information currently available on the youth. The packet should contain current and past probation reports, mental health evaluations, school records, juvenile hall progress reports, and medical assessments. You should also include individual references who can speak to the youths potential. (DO NOT WITHHOLD INFORMATION FROM THE PROGRAM - THIS WILL ONLY WORK AGAINST YOUR CLIENT AND UNDERMINE YOUR CREDIBILITY).

STEP FOUR

INITIATE FOLLOW-UP CONTACT

Five days after sending the placement packet call the program. Speak with the person to whom you originally spoke. Ask if they received the packet and offer to clarify any issues of questions. Ask for the earliest possible decision date.

STEP FIVE

ARRANGE FOR THE PROGRAM TO INTERVIEW YOUR CLIENT

If they request an interview as a condition of acceptance, you should provide the program access to your client. In most instances when the youth is in the detention center, this will require a court order. It is sometimes advisable that you accompany the program representative on the day of the interview to minimize potential problems and reassure the program of your commitment to the process.

STEP SIX

OBTAIN A DETAILED ACCEPTANCE LETTER FROM THE PROGRAM FOR PRESENTATION TO THE COURT

If the youth is found acceptable, the program should provide an acceptance letter outlining the nature of the program and how the program will address specific issues related to the youth. The letter should also describe the level of supervision provided to reassure the court that the youth is properly monitored.

STEP SEVEN

REQUEST THAT A PROGRAM REPRESENTATIVE TESTIFY AT THE DISPOSITION HEARING ABOUT THE YOUTH'S SUITABILITY FOR RESIDENTIAL PLACEMENT

If the program representative is willing, you should arrange for their testimony at the disposition hearing. This allows the judge to ask questions and affirms the program's commitment to working with the youth.

Note:

In some instances programs are reluctant to interview youths absent a direct referral from the probation department or other official placement agency. In these instances it often suffices to obtain an evaluation of the youth's potential suitability for the program based on available documents. Most programs will conduct this preliminary evaluation and provide a letter acknowledging the youths potential suitability but will not render a final decision. The final decision occurs following a direct referral from the placement agency following the disposition hearing. [It is important to remember that you are not the placement agency - you are only a referral source. As a result, the programs are not always able or willing to respond to requests for interviews or testimony from non official placement agency referral sources.] Also, all services and costs are subject to change periodically over the course of a year.
